Dear Professor Ferrater Mora,

Would you be willing to review the following work for the Journal? (The title and other bibliographical data are given as they will appear in the printed review.)

The normal maximum length for this review will be 750 words, and we ask that a time limit of six months be observed for completion of the review. We have a review copy which we will send you if you are willing to do the review.

We would be grateful for your help and look forward to your reply.
