Dear Editor Sternberg:

MAN AT THE CROSSROADS, by Professor Jose Ferrater Mora, Department of Philosophy, Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pa., is out of print. It is a great book, penetratingly analyzing the problems of our modern age and the philosophical crises in contemporary society. Ferrater Mora's approach is sound, complex, provocative and deep. He interrelates the problems of persons and organizations in showing how any philosophy in the future must take account of their interdependence.

He has published twelve books and has another, BEING AND MEANING, in preparation.

I wish to recommend his MAN AT THE CROSSROADS to you most highly for possible republication by the Southern Illinois University Press.

I am sure that Professor Ferrater Mora will send you a copy for your consideration, if you are interested.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Archie J. Bahm
