Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

Thank you for your very good letter of November 1. I am very sorry that it was not possible for you to read the manuscript of my translation of Zubiri's Sobre la esencia. I would have felt more secure and been able to discuss certain problems with you as I did not have the opportunity to do with the actual reader.

I fully appreciate the reasons why you cannot yourself undertake to read the manuscript with a view to improving the translation. I know how very busy you must be. I wonder whether through your wide acquaintance with persons with Spanish language background and knowledge in philosophy you might suggest someone who might be inclined to undertake this task with me. If you could do that I would be deeply appreciative indeed.

Thanking you again for your kindness in this matter and hoping for a reply from you which might be helpful in locating such a collaborator, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

A. Robert Caponigri
