Dear Mr. Ferrater:

Here's a note on the "Zeit und Sein" lecture.

(1) It was first published with a French translation in a Festschrift to Jean Beaufret: L'endurance de la pensée. Paris: Plon, 1968.

(2) It appears in a new Heidegger title, along with the minutes of a seminar held on the lecture and conducted by Heidegger, and which also includes two other pieces, "Das Ende der Philosophie und die Aufgabe des Denkens" (1964) and "Mein Weg in die Phänomenologie" (1963). This work is: Martin Heidegger. Zur Sache des Denkens. Tübingen: M. Niemeyer, 1969.

Poeggeler also has a first-rate anthology of studies of Heidegger:

Heidegger. Hrsg. v. Otto Poeggeler. Köln-Berlin: Kiepenheuer & Witsch, 1969.

Have a good holiday.

Cordially,

John Caputo
