Dear Prof. Ferrater,

Would you be willing to review the following (primarily expository) article for the Journal of Symbolic Logic?

Roberto Frucht. Cien años de àlgebra de Boole. Scientia (Valparaiso), vol. 21(1954), pp. 167-174

The normal maximum length for review of a paper of this length is 250 words; but excess length may be allowed when there are special reasons for it. Maximum time three months.

My address after September 15 will be in care of the Department of Philosophy,
University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois.

Sincerely yours,

[Signatura]
