

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

EVANSTON, ILLINOIS 60201

March 20, 1971

DEPARTMENT OF SPANISH

Professor José Ferrater Mora
Dep't. of Philosophy
Bryn Mawr College

Dear Professor Ferrater Mora,

I was delighted to receive your nice letter and to know that you are interested in coming to Northwestern on a Concora lectureship. The Spanish course you outlined, three world views as exemplified by Azorín, Baroja, and Valle-Inclán, sounds exciting. I know that our students would be enthusiastic.

I have been slow in answering you. The reason, in part, is that, as you know, committees move slowly. We realize that our stipend is inadequate for people teaching on the semester system. We hope to work out something so that the position will be more attractive. We will certainly keep you in mind and I hope that we can work something out. I will keep you informed.

This is a quick note. We leave on Monday for Madrid where we will be spending five months, and there are still many things for me to do.

Sincerely yours,

Cyrus C. DeCoster

Cyrus C. DeCoster