Professor José Ferrater Mora
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania

Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

I was very pleased to hear from you, and thank you for your detailed answers to all the queries with which I had to trouble you. I now have all the information I need to go ahead.

The stipend that I was authorized to propose included travel expenses. I took up the matter with the Provost again, who will readily arrange to have $500 of the amount remitted to you as travel expenses.

I am glad to hear that you remember our library resources as suitable for the courses you plan. Our colleagues in Spanish have been endeavoring to keep on ordering new acquisitions. Should important items be missing, we will order them as promptly as possible.

It will be a pleasure to see you, soon after April 26. A Friday will be perfect. Would May 2 be suitable? You already have friends on the campus, and others are eager to meet you.

All join me in expressing their deep satisfaction at your joining us next year.

My best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Nathan Edelman
Chairman
