Dear Professa Ferrater Mora,

We were deeply sorry to hear of the loss Mrs. Ferrater and you suffered. Please accept our sincere condolences. I know what trying weeks Mrs. Ferrater must have gone through, especially until your arrival. We hope that this summer from now on will be good to you all, and that you will all have a reviving rest.

Thank you for your very kind letter, and for the grades, which have been entered. It is for me to thank you; we were fortunate to have the support of your collaboration, and deeply appreciated it. I am very glad to know that it was pleasant and interesting for you.

I look forward to our meeting again, and soon.
I recall your giving me a note on your possible schedule for this summer, but, to my distress, I cannot find it. I did some feverish tidying up of my appalling desks, but in my weariness must have made more than one slip. Have your plans had to be changed now? In any case, could you let me know again whether you will be in Paris from August 5 to August 10? If you are, and if

That is not a bad time for you, we would very much like to say hello. I am sorry to put you to the trouble of briefing me again. In case I've mentioned the hotel at which we planned to stop in Paris, please disregard it, for the while. We may cancel it, as there is the possibility that we will stay at the house of friends in Boulogne-la-Reine.

With all our sympathy, and warmest good will

Sincerely,
Nathan Edelman

P.S. My home address will be best these days:

3613 Croydon Road,
Baltimore

P.S. June 22! On that note I lost, I had your Paris address! I've been trying to get it from René, but he just came back from a brief vacation in Cape Cod! Sorry about the delay.
