

Journal for the Theoretical Study of Philosophy and the Humanities

April 27, 1970

Prof. José Ferrater Mora
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania

Dear Prof. Ferrater Mora:

I am writing this letter in order to acquaint you with the effort in which a group of scholars has been involved for over a year. The enclosed brochure will hopefully accomplish the tasks of describing the orientation of the journal that we propose to begin publishing in the fall of 1970, introducing its editorial and advisory boards, and listing the contents of the first issue.

As you know, the enterprise of publishing ABRAXAS is arduous and complicated. We therefore seek your help and assistance in carrying it out. To that effect, we will very highly appreciate it if you would:

1. Supply any advice which you deem pertinent and fruitful.
2. Suggest topics or questions to which we could address ourselves by means of this journal.
3. Direct us to scholars who would be interested in this idea.
4. Offer us any study, essay, or article of yours, so as to consider it for publication in ABRAXAS.

Finally, it would be very helpful if: (a) you become a regular subscriber of the journal; (b) you recommend that the Library of the institution you are affiliated with subscribe to ABRAXAS.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Prof. Jorge Garcia-Gomez
Managing Editor
Humanities Division
Southampton College
Southampton, New York 11968
U.S.A.

N.B.- Would you consider becoming a member of the Advisory Board of Abraxas?
It would be a great honor and help to us. We hope you accept.

G. S. 70