

Mrs. Gertrude Rivka Horwitz
111 Halcyon Hill
Ithaca, N. Y.

Prof. J. Ferrater Mora
Department of Philosophy
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pa

September 7th 1962

Dear Mr. Ferrater Mora,

My work got slightly delayed since the stylist I have had got sick; luckily I found another one and by now the end is in sight.

I am sending you today five chapters and a Table of Contents of the whole; the rest will be ready in 3-4 days; I thought it worth sending this part ahead to speed up the reading of my work. For time is extremely valuable as I expect to leave United States September 21st.

As you will see I worked hard and made substantial changes throughout my dissertation. I excluded Chapters One and Two of my former version, which you thought particularly weak; I wrote a new chapter on redemption, for otherwise Rosenzweig thought would remain fragmentary. I tried to follow the technical advice of the MLA and I sincerely hope that now my thesis would be acceptable.

I am sending by the same mail another copy of the draft to Miss Stearns.

I thank you very much indeed for all your help; could I ask you to return the manuscript? I enclose a self mailed envelope.

Sincerely Yours

G. Horwitz

16-1X-62.