

January 22, 1961

Dear Mr. Ferrater Mora,

I was very slow to understand what you meant when you asked me if by any chance I come to Bryn Mawr on a fellowship. So let me say plainly (more plainly than I did last night) that no, I don't. Miss McBride consented to my speaking of my having such in resigning; I also spoke of having such to my real estate agent, in order then more readily to break the lease on my apartment.

But I am coming simply because Miss McBride has said that I may do so.

Sincerely,
[Signatura]