Dear Jose,

This is to say that, on behalf of E. J. Brill's series on the Philosophy of History and Culture, I am most interested to pursue with you your idea about writing a monograph on Meaning in Art. I know that you have other writing commitments at the moment, but I would be most grateful if you could provide an outline of the work. That would enable us to think more concretely about its eventual publication.

With continued cordial regards,

As ever,

Michael
