Dear José —

I hope your re-entry into teaching isn't too much of a shock. Did you manage to finish the encyclopedia and the book? I continue to be amazed at your rate of productivity.

I have been working hard on my book, and hope to have it done by the new year.

Connie and I had a wonderful summer in Aspen. One of the people we met was Charles Frankel of the Columbia Philosophy Department. I'm sure you know him. He has just founded the National Humanities Center in North Carolina, and was most forceful about my applying. So, I am applying. If I get it I would apply for some leave either next year or the following. In any case, I

Would if you would be so kind as
+ send him a letter of recommendation on my behalf. I think you might send it + him at Columbia.

I will probably be visiting B.C.
in the latter part of October. Hope we can have a little time together.
Do give my best to Priscilla.

With all good wishes and thanks —

Effectively,

Richard
