Dear Jose,

Before too much time passes I want to tell you of my indebtedness to you for all the help you have given. I recognize, of course, that what you have done has followed from your conviction - that it was the right thing to do - on the basis of academic considerations, and so on.
But the extent of your care and energies has gone beyond that conviction. And I only want to tell you that I recognize that and wish, in writing, to thank you for it.

As ever.

Eric Carl
