Dear Jose,

I want to congratulate you for a job well done in the panel discussion "What is Religion?". As far as I personally was concerned, everyone was muddled in their thinking but you. Your clarity of thought and expression left no doubt in my mind about what you thought but I was in complete confusion about what everyone else was trying to say.

The large attendance shows that the students are interested, and I am sure that through your efforts they have a clearer understanding of the problem than they did before.

Congratulations!

Sincerely,

L. Joe Berry
