Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Penn.

Dear Professor Ferrater y Mora,

We are preparing a 'Homenaje' in honour of don Américo Castro's 80th birthday (1965) and we would be very pleased if you would care to join the distinguished band of scholars who have promised to contribute.

You will be interested to hear that among don Américo's pupils and friends in the U.S.A. and Spain, the following have promised to contribute:

Edmund L. King (Princeton), Stephen Gilman (Harvard), Edward Glaser (University of Michigan), Albert A. Sicroff (Queens College, New York), F. Marquez Villanueva (Vancouver), Joseph H. Silverman (UCLA), Manuel Duran (Yale) Miguel Enguidanos (Indiana) M. José Benardete (Brooklyn) S.H. Armistead (UCLA) and others. In Spain, the following scholars will co-operate: Rafael Lapesa, Julio Caro Baroja, J.M. Blécula, A. Zamora Vicente, D. Garcia-Sabell and others.

In short: I am confident that we shall produce a substantial volume worthy to be presented to the venerable master and we would feel privileged if you too care to contribute.

Contributions should not exceed 10 - 15 pages in print and should reach us not later than March 1st, 1965.

Yours faithfully

Marcel P. Hornik
