Dear Professor Mora:

I wonder if I might solicit your help in connection with a matter that is of great importance to this College?

Some years ago, my Department of Romance Studies was given a chair in Spanish literature. They have now proposed the name of Professor Ciriaco Morón-Arroyo for the chair.

I am in process of constituting an ad hoc committee to advise me on this extremely important appointment. As is our usual practice, we must obtain assessments of Professor Arroyo's scholarship and, to the extent you are able to speak about it, his abilities as a teacher. I would be most grateful if you could find the time to give me your frank assessment; anything that you may have to say about his worthiness for this chair would be of great help to me.

Sincerely yours,

Alfred E. Kahn
Dean
