Dear Professor Ferrater,

Thank you so much for a very pleasant afternoon, I again apologize for arriving late and for the absence of the other members of the class. They did not become lost for twenty five years, only for an hour, after which they returned home. We have told them of our discussion and they are, to say the least, sorry to have missed it.

The students who met with you were thrilled by the experience and amazed by how "simpatico" and "human" –their words- you are.

I, too, was thrilled to have had the opportunity to meet and talk with you. Again let me extend my thanks to you and your friend for your hospitality and friendship.

Sincerely
