Dear Señor Ferrater Mora,

Knowing how very much my brother Otto Schlaefli appreciated your friendship and kind letters and how much he was looking forward to another meeting with you, I feel I must let you know my sad news.

My dear brother died on Dec 23rd. He never recovered from his operation of a year ago, although in the summer we spent several weeks in the mountains in Switzerland and had another consultation with the surgeon in Barcelona in November, but I was given no hope.

I must only try to be thankful that he was spared long suffering and that he is now at rest in his beloved Ibiza.

Should you ever on your travels to Europe visit our Island it would be a great pleasure for me to meet you. I may go to Switzerland and England later on, but this address will always find me.

Yours very sincerely,
