

EMORY UNIVERSITY

ATLANTA 22, GEORGIA

DEPARTMENT OF
ROMANCE LANGUAGES

April 17, 1969

Dear Professor Ferrater,

Carlos and I are indeed planning to include your article in our anthology. Your manuscript is, in fact, in the hands of the typist, but we shall resubmit it as soon as we possibly can - within the next day or two, in any case - and send it to you at once by air mail.

The book is progressing nicely and at breakneck speed, since we've had to move our deadline up from December to June in order to finish the MS, or as much of it as possible, before I leave Atlanta for the West Coast: I have recently been appointed professor of romance languages and comparative literature at the University of Oregon.

I hope you will excuse the informality of this note: I am to enter the hospital day after tomorrow for a minor operation and I have a lot of chores to attend to between now and then.

Thanks once again for allowing us to use your article!

Cordially,

Tom Hart

EMORY UNIVERSITY
ATLANTA 22, GEORGIA

DEPARTMENT OF
ROMANCE LANGUAGES