Professor J. Ferrater Mora
Department of Philosophy
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, PA 19010

Dear Professor Mora:

A new typesetting method has been introduced, effective with the September 1982 issue (Vol. 43, No. 1) of Philosophy and Phenomenological Research. All copy is entered on the computer here at Brown and transferred to a typesetting system.

In place of galleys we are supplying a printout of your article, "The Languages of History," as it has been entered into the computer. The finished product will be like that of the printout except that the material will be single spaced, will have a shorter line and page length, will have running heads, and will be in a standard font.

Please will you look over the enclosed printout and return it with your corrections as soon as possible. Also, please supply us with the footnotes for this article. They were not included with your manuscript. We must receive your corrected printout and footnotes by April 1 in order to keep this issue on schedule.

Sincerely yours,

Suzanne Bertrand
Editorial Secretary
