

12-X-1959

Dear Professor Mora,

I am most grateful for your book. I have only dipped in it so far, but I have already found in it some very stimulating ideas. It is good to know that the ability to write this kind of book – with its spacious historical canvas and great range of interests- has not yet become a lost art.

I am looking forward to your visit here.

Yours sincerely,
[signatura]