

The Graduate School and University Center
of the City University of New York

Ph.D. Program in Spanish
Graduate Center: 33 West 42 Street, New York, N.Y. 10036
212 790-4484

April 6, 1981

Professor Jose Ferrater Mora
Bryn Mawr College
Department of Spanish
Bryn Mawr, Pa. 19010

Dear Professor Ferrater:

I read of your retirement and would like to be there at the tribute offered you. However, let this letter stand instead of my physical presence.

Years ago, you came to Queens for a week to give a series of lectures which I attended. We had some conversation and dinner far into the evening, at which time you kindly offered to take me back to Manhattan. I remember with academic and personal admiration your impact upon everyone. And I have kept up with your work while availing myself of your Dictionary of Philosophy every time I needed information.

I know that your retirement will be full of productivity since you stand so far above our petty Hispanists who have the temperament of prima donnas without the talent. You have risen far above the insignificant so-called "research" which contributes more grains of sand to an already tottering sand-castle. Your breadth is an inspiration to so many of us who are more interested in the broader questions.

Again, I wish you happiness and fulfillment.

Very truly yours,

Martin Nozick
Executive Officer

rp