Dear Mr Smith:

Thank you for your letter of September 19. I note that you are scheduling my lecture for Friday, October 19th, at 5:30 P.M. I will arrive at the Institute a little before that time.

The subject of my lecture can be described as follows: "An examination of life, freedom, and equality as desirable ends for mankind, " or perhaps "A Spanish philosopher's views on the most desirable ends for mankind: life, freedom, and equality of opportunity."

Looking forward to meeting you,

Sincerely yours

José Ferrater Mora
Professor of Philosophy
Fairbank Professor in the Humanities
