Professor Jose M. F. Mora
Department of Philosophy
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Dear Professor Mora,

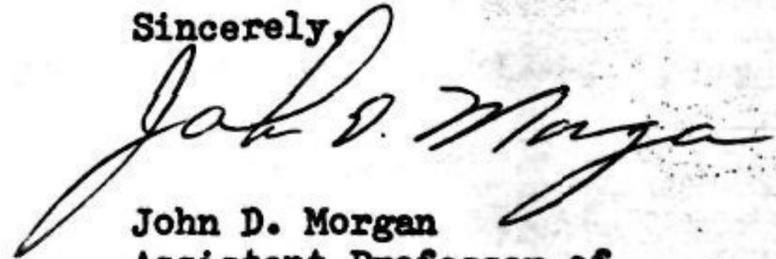

Would you please inform me if you would be interested in coming to Loyola College of Montreal sometime in the Fall term of 1966 to address the faculty and students in an area of your interests which I assume to be contemporary Spanish philosophy. Since I wrote my Master's thesis on Ortega and Unamuno, I am familiar with your work in this area.

Loyola College is a Roman Catholic institution which is administered by the Society of Jesus. Our Philosophy department and program is unique for Catholic institutions in that it is staffed entirely by lay men and emphasises no particular school or period of philosophy.

Montreal is the second largest French speaking city in the world and uniquely preserves the old French-Canadian culture in a modern and progressive city. I think that should you decide to visit you would find both your hosts at Loyola and the City of Montreal most hospitable.

We would be able to offer you an honorarium of $100.00 in addition to the costs of your expenses.

Sincerely,

John D. Morgan
