

Hotel Russell

Russell Square

London

datum date

van from naar to

aan boord vliegtuig on board aircraft

Dear Jose -

It was good of you to write to us both appreciated. Milton was much better today but still has some pain in the left afternoon and evening. We are hoping that it will be completely gone in a few days but I am very anxious to get him right. The doctors here are further emphasizing what the doctor does not expect to be, almost get done by the end of the week. I shall cable just as soon as I can absolutely say which it will be. Milton is very weak from his few years can't leave until he regains some strength.

Would it be possible for you to meet us in

New York? I would like to see TWA's home flight (#703) which goes daily at 2:25 PM from London to New York. I believe at 2:25 PM the TWA flight (#297T) for which we were booked leaves NY at 4 PM. Please let me know if it occurs to be that if Milton (if he is still feeling weak) can't go directly from London to NY, it will be very nice if I could see the baggage through customs. I would like to see the things more slowly but it would mean less charges for him (He may get his

3) Will you ask B. Yarnes if she would be prepared to take over the 1st meeting of the Aesthetics in case I can't make it & give the students a general idea of the subject & ask them to buy my book (!)

Hasta la vista

Milton

PS Will you check & see a) whether the Dean's Office announced Klein's course in Hegel b) whether Klein has been given an office c) will <sup>you</sup> ask McBride whether Thomas is coming down from Princeton to lecture on Philosophy & Religion?