Dear Professor Ferrater,

We are very pleased to have your letter accepting our invitation. The titles you suggest interest us very much. Our preference is that you come down sometime between February 5th and March 25th. The meetings are usually held on weekdays. However, if it would be difficult for you to arrange a visit on weekdays, we would be willing to schedule your lectures for a week-end. If possible, we would like to set the dates of your visit now. As soon as you find it possible to select these dates, please let us know.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Maurice Natanson
