Professor José María Ferrater Mora
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania 19010

Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

A considerable amount of interest has been expressed here in the possibility of inviting you to Penn State for a week's involvement in the workings of the departments of Philosophy and of Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese. During the proposed visit we would ask you to give two lectures, one in philosophy and one in Spanish literature. We would also ask you to give a brief talk (approximately 20 minutes) to the Comparative Literature Luncheon group. We would ask that you visit classes in philosophy and Spanish literature on an informal basis, principally to participate in discussions with faculty and students involved.

If a visit of that sort would be of interest to you, then we would hope to arrange for you to be here one week, preferably in the mid-part of our winter term (between January 22nd and February 19th). If scheduling in that time would not prove convenient for you, we may be able to work out a time here in the mid-part of our spring term (between April 12th and May 10th).

If you are interested in pursuing this matter further and can arrange scheduling within the time periods that would work for us here, I will be glad to send further information for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Allison
Associate Director
