

Friday, 26th

Dear Mr. Ferrater,

In case Jaime didn't get the latest information on time to tell you this weekend. My father –with great difficulty, secured a tourist berths on the Statendan sailing June 18. The boys may or may not be together but we hope to know just what accommodations they have by the time the balance is due –roughly six weeks in advance of sailing. Also with great difficulty, we have succeeded in buying a Porsche for Ted. He will take delivery Saturday, June 26 either at Rotterdam where they will land or at Amsterdam airport nearby. We tried to order a car for delivery at Stuttgart but all factory cars for June delivery are sold. So the car was purchaed through KLM. As stated before, it will be properly insured + have safety belts.

We anticipate they will fly back August 20 – Ted to Boston + Jaime to Philadelphia- on the same plane from London. My father will tend to those reservations tomorrow or Moday. It's amazing how time consuming the arrangements are.

My best to Mrs. Ferrater.

Cordially

[signatura]