Dear Profesor Ferrater Mora:

I have finished a book on Ortega of about 200 pages which has the working title "Ortega and Husserl: Notes for a Reading of "Meditaciones del Quijote". The MS is in English and I have hopes of publishing it in Spanish. Therefore, I need a good translator –one with some knowledge of Ortega or philosophy or both. I wonder if you could suggest one to me?.

I begin full time at Columbia in the fall and will soon be living in N.Y.C. Once there I hope to be able to visit Philadelphia with more ease and renew old contacts.

Respectfully,
