Professor José Ferrater Mera
Department of Philosophy
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Dear Mr. Ferrater Mera:

Many thanks for getting a letter to me here in Radford. I'm happy to ~~xxxx~~ hear that ~~xxxx~~ the Department approves of my desire to be an assistant reader.

I'm now wondering whether the likelihood of my receiving the assistantship is great enough that I can afford not to look for a job teaching when I am in Boston. In ~~xxxx~~ any case, that needn't be decided before I get there, and ~~xxxxxxxx~~ I will talk with you about it then.

The thought of leaving Radford promptly on December 12 turned out to be excessively optimistic. All my 124 examinations come on the 10th and 11th, and all grades are due at noon on the 12th! I doubt it can be done.

Thanks again for your letter. I'm looking forward to seeing you in Boston.

Sincerely,

Madolene Stone
