

Dear Mr.....

In connection with awards for assistance under the program in legal and political philosophy, of which I was informed in your letter of May 21, 1959, I take the liberty to enclose herewith an application for a grant during the second semester of 1961-1962, and the summer of 1962. The aforementioned dates are the most convenient for me, for by that time I am sure I will have already completed the research work I am doing now, and I will be free for another project.

In case you consider that the project of which I also enclose a concise statement is not suitable under the program, please let me know at the earliest possible date. As you will see, the project, although very relevant in my opinion to the study of problems in legal and political philosophy is also relevant to
