Dear José,

I have some very good news! The Wharton School meeting is scheduled for April 7 (Friday). We are planning on coming up the night before and spending the weekend in the country.

It would be wonderful if I could see you on the 7th. I persuaded H.K. to take me along on the premise that mine would also be a business trip. Would it be possible to arrange for me to speak with some students, address the Philosophy Club, or some class, or something? Do you have any ideas? If nothing can be arranged, I may be able to come anyway, but I don't want to take the chance. The College doesn't need to reimburse me in any way.

Hoping to see you again very soon.

*Kennedy,
Kathleen*
