Dear Professor Ferrater-Mora:

Thank you very much for your letter of March 31. As soon as I have heard from Professors Anderson and Schrag concerning the final draft of our projected letter I shall send you a number of copies so that you may add your comments in Spanish. As you suggested, the others may receive their letters directly.

Until receiving your letter I had not yet contacted Professor E. Máyz Valenilla but have done so in the interim. I hope that he will accept our invitation, because I think the people you have suggested to serve as main links are good choices, and that the idea itself is an excellent one.

Until later. Thank you again for your assistance, and continued success in your work.

Cordially,

Joseph J. Kockelmans
