Dear Professor Chisholm:

I apologize for my belated answer to your letter of April 21. The final weeks of the spring term leave very little time for anything except classes, exams, and committee meetings.

I am pleased to learn that my article, "The Languages of History," has been accepted for publication in PPR. I understand that there will be a period of delay due to a large amount of material awaiting publication. I look forward to reading galley proofs and ordering reprints when the material will be sent to me.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely

Fairbank Professor in the Humanities
