Dear Professor Bennett:

Thank you for your letter of March 18.

If the audience of the Weinberg Lecture includes scholars and students from a wide range of studies in the humanities Departments, the best subject, out of the three which I suggested, is, indeed, "The Languages of History."

As to the date (month and day of the week), I leave it to your choice. Birutė Ciplijauskaitė's suggestion that the lecture be held some time by the last week of March or the first week of April, 1981, seems to me quite reasonable, since by then there should be no great dangers of difficult travel conditions.

With my very best wishes,

Sincerely
