

Fragmentary manuscript page with dense Latin text, showing significant damage and missing sections.

Main body of the manuscript, consisting of several columns of dense Latin text. The text is written in a formal Gothic script. There are several large gaps and missing sections, particularly in the upper and middle portions of the page. The text appears to be a historical or legal document, possibly a chronicle or a collection of letters.

Fragmentary text at the bottom of the page, including the phrase "Sicut autem deus..."
