Dear Professor Mora:

The purpose of this letter is to invite you to contribute to a volume of philosophical essays to be published by a group of friends in honor of Professor Risieri Frondizi and in particular to commemorate the year of his retirement, 1979. As you well know, Professor Frondizi has not only contributed to the development of philosophy, but has been as well, a dedicated teacher in Latin America, the United States and Europe. For this reason we think quite appropriate to publish a volume in his honor as a token of our appreciation.

The book will be entitled, El hombre y su conducta (Man and His Conduct)--since it is precisely in the areas of philosophical anthropology and axiology that Frondizi has contributed the most to philosophy. The essays (15-20 double spaced, typed pages) should be original contributions of solid theoretical content. The particular theme is left to the contributor's discretion, provided it be within the general theme of the volume. The deadline is June, 1978.

I trust you will be able to send us a contribution. Let me know your answer as soon as possible. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jorge J. E. Gracia
Associate Professor
