

Dear Dr. And Mrs Ferrater

I have finally dropped out elementary logia, which seemed at first a rush move but which leaves me  $\frac{1}{4}$  extra time to study new, interesting and useful things. I am trying to use the additional freedom well, but a seminar paper on which I spent many hours was met, for some reason, with condescending laughter, and I gather that I have not yet fully caught on to Harvard. I enjoyed it though.
I hope that you are well, and wish you a happy year.

Love
