Dear Mr. Ferrater Mora

On March 18, 1985 I wrote to you requesting that you write a letter of recommendation for me. I am enclosing a copy of the original letter as a reminder, or, in the event that you did not receive it, as a first time request. It is possible that you were on vacation at the time that the letter was sent and that somehow it did not reach you upon your return. I suppose that you may have received it but have not had the opportunity to respond. In any case, I apologize for persisting. I am anxious to compile my dossier and a letter from you will be necessary to establish the fact that you directed my dissertation.

Again, I wish to express my regret for imposing in this manner. At the same time, I thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Sylvain Boni
