

Jan 20th

Dear Mr. Ferrater,

My apologies for being so very tardy in thanking you for your time and ability on behalf of Bryn Mawr. We certainly enjoyed having you here – and I have been “playing” with the idea of freedom of thought in free societies ever since.

I too enjoyed the luncheon while Mr. Nef and am only sorry we went able to dig a bit deeper into some of the ideas [exponided?].

It is fun to throw out ideas and see how the others react!

Thank you again for your visit – and your encouraging letter I have not given up the plight of the housebound suburban woman.

Sincerely,

[Signatura]
