

New College,
Oxford.

Dear Professor Vicens,

Thank you so much for sending the books. Let me know the cost in pesetas & I will get the Bank to send them to you.

You wanted Cole's History of Sorcery: this is in 4 volumes

vol i The Forerunners 1789-1850

.. ii Marx & Anarchism 1850-1900

iii The Second International.
Part i
Part ii

It is volume iii Parts i & Parts ii that I have sent to you. (They cost 70/- so you still have £1 in credit to you here) Colt has just died: he was a remarkable

New College,
Oxford.

man. A left wing socialist anarcho, except for a taste for very fine Swish Whisky, he had an extraordinary place in the English scene of the Twenties and thirties. In his later years he was rather a sad figure: he had never written a really first class book and the socialist movement had ceased to regard him as their chief intellectual mentor. ~~He~~ He used to sing old Chartist songs in a cracked and reedy voice: it was somehow deeply depressing. I used to take a Seminar with him on Political Thought.

Yours truly

Raymond Linn

If by any chance it was the other part of Cole you wanted let me know and return the books to me & I will change them.

Sara sends her regards to you & Señora Vicinas as do I