

New College,
Oxford.

Dear Vewen, Vewes,

I

have applied for a Leverhulme Fellowship to go to Spain for some time to read the books, pamphlets & some of the manuscript sources I cannot find here. I put your name as a reference & I'd be very grateful if you'd say that I was a competent historian who would benefit from a time for study in Spain.

I'm coming out for a few days at Easter.
I shall then be able to settle my debt to you for the books you so kindly sent! I'm now busy writing the chapter on 1793-1837 for the Cambridge Modern History. The economic side draws very heavily on your work.

Yours ever Raymond Carr
Our regards to your wife.
