Dear Professor Vicens Vives,

Thank you for your letter of the 4th November. I am very glad to hear that your wife will be coming and we shall be delighted if you could stay with us. I will meet you at Oxford station if you will tell me the time of your train.

As you will be lecturing in French perhaps we ought to have in advance the titles in French of your lectures.

We look forward very much to meeting you.

Yours sincerely,

RAYMOND CARR.
