

NEW COLLEGE,
OXFORD.

27th November, 1958.

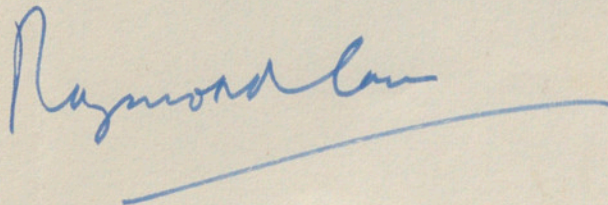

Professor J. Vicens Vives,
Santalo, 130,
Barcelona,
Spain.

Dear Professor Vicens,

Thank you for your letter which reached me today. You are being met in London by Dr. Turner who will put you on a train for Oxford and who will inform me by telephone the time of your arrival. I will be waiting outside the station in a bright yellow car.

I am very much looking forward to meeting you and of course I will help you in any way that I can over your lecture.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Raymond Law', with a long horizontal line underneath it.

RC/PVH