

23 october '70

Dear Mr. Ferrater

I was beginning to think that I had at last experienced the Abgrund – viz, by dropping my “Heid and Eck.” study down the bottomless pit at The Journal for the Hint of Phil. However, they just replied and I send you copies of their letter and enclosures.

What do you make of it? What do you think of the chances of a reversed paper being accepted? Some of the charges are outrageous, some are on target. At the very least, I created some confusions for these readers. Should I try elsewhere?. I'll give you a call after you're had the opportunity to look over the enclosed.

Cordially

[Signatura]