Dear Professor Vicens Vives,

Thank you so much for your letter of 18th October and for your telegram.

We look forward very much to seeing you in the first week of December. Might I suggest that you arrive on Monday, 1st December and give your first lecture on the following day, and the second lecture on Thursday, 4th December? I will make the necessary arrangements in the University.

It will be a great pleasure to welcome you here.

Yours very sincerely

Billy Deak,
