Apreciado señor:

Thank you very much for your prompt reply to my request for assistance in connection with the HAHR. We are in direct touch with Insula in Madrid and with the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas also, so that we get directly from them information on current historical publications of interest to the HAHR. However, it occurred to me that through the Indice Historico Español we might have a better coverage, particularly for the provinces. Therefore, what we would be interested in receiving is as follows:

1. The titles and authors of ^{Spanish} books (not articles) on the history of Latin America published in 1953 and 1954, together with the authors and titles of outstanding books on Spanish history which would be useful for background information on Latin American history.

2. The names and addresses of the publishing houses of these books.

3. We are not interested in receiving notes or informative descriptions of these books, because our purpose would be to ask for review copies and then have them sent to historians in this country for review.

The HAHR is in the same position as the Indice Historico Español. We receive no official aid and the Review is supported by Duke University. Therefore, it would be very difficult for us to pay for this service, but it might be possible to pay the cost of some typist who would do the work for you and for the airmail postage. I realize that this asking a great deal of you and if it is not possible for you to do this I will certainly understand. However, if you want to make a beginning perhaps it would be good to send me just the titles of 1954 books in the categories mentioned above, and then we could determine whether I am getting this information anywhere through the Consejo Superior or Insula. Any suggestions that occur to you will be greatly appreciated.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,
