

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

BALTIMORE - 18, MARYLAND

DEPARTMENT OF
ROMANCE LANGUAGES

September 9, 1958

Professor José Ferrater Mora
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Dear Professor Ferrater Mora:

Welcome back to home base! I trust you have had till the end a wonderful stay in Europe.

This is to remind you that although classes are officially set to begin on September 25, we continue an established tradition here by starting graduate courses a week later, or Thursday, October 2. We shall look forward to seeing you then. As you requested, we have scheduled your course to be held from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. on Thursdays.

As our new building is still a library-castle in the air, we are doing what we can by sharing offices. May I ask you to share René Girard's? As you know, René will be at Bryn Mawr on Thursdays; much to his regret, he will miss your visits to Johns Hopkins, but he will feel better about it if you will make yourself at home in his quarters.

My best greetings.

Cordially,

Nathan Edelman

NE:sw

15-1X-58