

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

BALTIMORE - 18, MARYLAND

DEPARTMENT OF
ROMANCE LANGUAGES

July 2, 1958

Dear Professor Feneter Inara,

I have been mercilessly weighed down with that 17th-century project, which has to be wound up in this season, and I am afraid that I have been a poor correspondent. Please excuse it.

I did want to send you greetings, and wishes for a good summer in Paris. I'll be very interested in your reactions to present developments in France.

I agree with you that the simpler plan would be to offer the literary course first, and I will so announce it.

I am sorry to trouble you with routine matters. But the Treasurer's Office needs to have these enclosed forms filled out. I have not been able to learn whether you are a citizen of the U.S.; if the questionnaire does not apply

to you, please throw it away,
and excuse my sending it.

We were all broken up by the news of Margaret Kilman's death. I shall miss very much.

We are looking forward to seeing you after the vacation.

Best wishes.

6-VIII-58.

Sincerely yours,
Nathan Edelman

If I am not mistaken, you
has reached the decision that no
special text would be required
to be bought by the students.
If I am wrong, please do let me know, as the bookstore would have to send out orders as early as possible.
